Where a fee is fixed in the foregoing tariff for any particular act or transaction, no additional fee is to be demanded for signature, attestation, or annexing seal of office.

All consular fees are to be collected, as prescribed by law, "in the coin of the United States, or at its representative value in exchange."

*The fee for the "copies" is not an official fee to be accounted for. The fee for authentication is an official fee.

†When it is possible to embrace several signatures in one certificate, the consul will do so, and but one fee will be charged for such certificate.

‡In the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland the fee for shipping a seaman is two dollars, and for discharging a seaman fifty cents. This special tariff does not apply to the British Colonies nor to any other country.

§See State Department Circular No. 51, dated January 3, 1874.

¶When parties have a right to call for copies, consular officers must make them at this rate. This does not, however, include the authentication, if that is required.
