Sir

I have the honour to enclose a translation of Don Miguel Uriarte of Lima, owner of the Peruvian Brig Henriqueta (which after being condemned was sold in this Port, to the Shipowners on the 28th of January 1848) to His Majesty's Charge d'Affaires in that City, requesting him to procure proof of the condemnation of that Vessel, to enable him to recover a certain amount of the insurance effected in Bremen, which the Underwriters there, refuse to pay without that proof.

Mr Uriarte, doubtless was not aware that the Republic of Bremen had no duly appointed & accredited Consul in this Kingdom, to whom he ought to have directed his application, but to which as you are present, it would be a delicate thing for me to act in this matter

Messrs S. H. Williams & Co were the Agents of the Henriqueta

It would be desirable to remark the documents in duplicate, as the forms of Courts proceeding to Law, or Subpoenas

I have the honour to be

Sir

Your most obedient humble Servant
