June 30 - 1840

My Respects to you, the British Consul

I have received your letter written yesterday. I have sought for that which is right in relation to the land of which you spake to me. The Kauluohi has also taken a voyage to inquire of Gov. Adams. The justice of your claim is not clear to him, neither is it to me. Herein is the ground of my doubt.

At the date of your lease, Kalaimoku had not the direction of this kingdom, but Kaahumanu. She was above Kalaimoku, wherefore he could not transfer any land for a long time without the assent of Kaahumanu.

Furthermore, that land did not belong to Kalaimoku, but was the special property of Kaahumanu herself, and at the present time the land is in the hands of Kaahumanu's heirs. Kalaimoku and his heirs have no connection with it. Wherefore Kalaimoku could not give away that place.

Again, the proper time for presenting the claim is passed. Those who transacted the business together with the witnesses are dead. More than thirteen years have passed, and you have not mentioned the subject — houses have been erected on the land without your forbidding it, and without our hearing any thing of your views concerning the land.

Furthermore, it is a new thing entirely — it has not been known in this kingdom, it is a strange thing also, and a thing never seen, to make a permanent transfer of land without liability to taxation, and not subject to the orders of the king. That is not at all like the way in which we do business. Therefore it is not proper that it should be done secretly without the knowledge of the one who had charge of the kingdom.

Again, according to my reflections on the subject, and my examination, that place is not included in your lease. The boundaries are not defined. Even also on account of that word "thereabouts" I am of opinion that there was not a correct measurement, and that the ground included within the fence is the only ground included (in the lease.) If you did not think so, why did you wait so long, and when thirteen have passed, then make the claim?

Again, there is no explanation in your lease of the consideration for which the land was transferred — that is not like all other leases which I have seen.

For there and other reasons it is not clear to me that your claim is just.

With Respect for You
