F. O. and Ex.

To The Hon The Board of Commissioners for the Sandwich Islands Government

Gentlemen —

Enabling myself of the offer — kindly given by you to foreigners on presenting their claims for adjustment, I herein forward Bill — It is a Land of about fifteen (15) (agnes) Rods in this place (Honolulu) I purchased of Mrs. Dana & Thou — (Natives) in the Autumn 1831 — for the consideration of forty dollars ($40) I have upon it at present four houses, and I also a Resident with a family, further, and substantiating evidence I am ready to present when called upon by your Hon. Board —

Respectfully I have the honor —

Copy of Deed

I, Kamehameha III hereby transfer forever to Henry L. Brooks, a Certain piece of land in Waiakea, named Makole. The Land shall belong to him and his Hawaiian born heirs forever more

I. Kamehameha III do further give to him a Certain fishing ground named Papaula, which fishing Ground shall belong to Henry L Brooks during his natural life, and then it shall revert to Kaumuahua or her heirs — Said Ground shall not descend to the heirs of H. L. Brooks

Kamehameha III further agrees that said grounds shall never pay any tax or rent, nor shall the people be required to labor for the king, until the natural life of said Brooks shall end, after which, taxes shall be paid and the people shall labor like the people of other lands.

And Henry L. Brooks agrees on his part that he will continue to labor for the King as he has done previous to the date of this instrument but the number of days which he shall be required to labor in one year shall never exceed forty.

In testimony of our mutual consent to this agreement we have hereunto subscribed our names on this 28th day of October in the Year of Our Lord 1840 at Lahaina Maui
